Space race io

AstroRace.io is a cool retro racing game that involves drifting with a small spaceship. The music and graphics of this game are awesome and the racing gameplay works. You start in the noob league and progress as you finish the race. You have to drift your spaceship and try to power your pulse bar drifting at the edges of the track. Once the panel is full, you can press the SPACEBAR button to perform a speed boost! There are a number of different tracks to play on each of which you complete 5 laps. Can you progress to the top leagues and show off your drifting Astro skills? The release date of the December 2018 Developer Exodragon Games made this game. Features of 2D minimalist graphics Space themed race Four players in race Many tracks. I've been playing this game for about 2 years, and have unlocked and beaten every level. I totally loved playing this game for about 1.1/2 years. But now, all I have to look forward to unlocking a few parts of the vehicle is left that the game has to offer. I'm still fine with that, but after playing daily problems over and over again to earn enough Diamonds to play the scratch game, 90% of the time only rewards are offered coins or sometimes some wheels that I already have 3. In addition, awards awards no longer lands on the new part of the slot (after about 800 revolutions). I really don't want to delete this game, but I may have to soon, after only getting coins (which are useless without new parts) for the past 6 months. I literally have nothing new to play anymore... Starting to get a little frustrated knowing that I keep playing this game day after day to try to get that snowmobile wheel track that would seemingly never be mine.... I've already spent a lot of real money on this game and I refuse to spend more because nothing changes now. If I don't get anything other than more useless coins on my next scratching game, I'll absolutely be removing this game, and moving on with my boring life. Hi! Thanks for the feedback! We try to provide the highest quality game experience for the players. Astrorace io combines the features of several IO games. This combination makes gameplay unique and addicting.
